

He Wasnt Always Old and Other Short Stories

This is a collection of short stories by Ronn Munsterman, the author of the Sgt. Dunn Novels: Operation Devils Fire and Behind German Lines (available on Amazon in Paperback and Kindle), World War II action thrillers. In the title story, one of generational love, understanding and respect, a grandson learns what his elderly grandfather did during World War II and its ramifications on other peoples lives. Meeting Timmy OMalley starts with a baseball crashing through a mans front window, and shows how relationships can come from unexpected places. Teachers influence students of all ages and a retired teacher gets to make his Final Influence. In Martian Dew, what a Martian robotic lander discovers provides excitement and surprise back on Earth. What is behind the closed door in Next!?! In this book, the author prefaces each story with some background to give you insight into how authors work. A preview of Operation Devils Fire is included.
