

Charles Paris: A Decent Interval: A BBC Radio 4 Full-Cast Dramatisation

A BBC Radio 4 full-cast dramatisation of Simon Bretts entertaining crime novel, starring Bill Nighy. Charles Paris has been resting for quite a while, so hes relieved when he is cast as Ghost of Hamlets Father and First Gravedigger in a touring production of Hamlet. But rehearsals are a little tense - the lead roles of Hamlet and Ophelia are played by a reality TV contestant and TV talent show winner respectively, and their opinions on celebrity and the theatre differ somewhat from those of the more experienced members of the cast. The show is barely on the road before tragedy strikes - just before opening night, part of the set collapses, seriously injuring one of the actors. Then another member of the cast is found dead. Its up to Charles Paris to turn detective and investigate the mystery, but with almost everyone having a motive for murder, will he ever track down the real killer? Bill Nighy stars as Charles Paris, with Suzanne Burden as Frances, in this dramatisation by Jeremy Front. Duration: two hours.
