

Weight Till Christmas

From RNA Romantic Comedy of the Year Nominee, Ruth Saberton This is a British import from the land of Hugh Grant, the Queen and afternoon tea! It is written in British English not American English. Cinder Ellie shall go to the ball. At least she will if she can squeeze into her party dress... Without a fairy godmother to wave a magic wand, Ellie Summers needs more than a pumpkin to impress her gorgeous boss. She works hard, not as a scullery maid but as a super sassy saleswoman, but he just doesn't notice her. Their company's lavish Christmas party is the opportunity Ellie's been waiting for to make a big impression. And she doesn't intend it to be winning the mince pie eating competition. With the help of fellow dieter Sam, a sleigh load of will power and a sprinkling of Christmas magic, Ellie knows finding her Prince Charming is just a mistletoe kiss away. But is her prince really so charming? Or is Christmas romance closer than she thinks? This is a novella of approximately 100 pages Ruth Saberton's stories are always a treat - filled with irresistible characters and sparkling wit. - Miranda Dickinson The heir apparent to Bridget Jones.
