

Claude-Achille Debussy (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Claude-Achille Debussy My best thanks are due to Mr. Granville Bantock for his kind loan of the piano score of Pelleas et Melisande, and to MM. A. Durand et Fils for the chronological list of M. Debussys works at the end of this volume. My husband has all my gratitude for his unfailing help with the reading of difficult scores and for the long tete-a-tetes over the piano, during which we renewed acquaintance with some, and became intimate with all the compositions of this interesting and original composer. If this slight impressionist sketch of his life and work will serve to make M. Debussys beautiful art-product in any way better known in England, the pleasure gained in writing it will be increased tenfold.
