Kinky Friedman is known for many things. Hes the irrepressible future Governor of Texas. He is the oldest Jew in Texas who doesnt own real estate. And he is notorious for his outrageous one-liners. Cowboy Logic is a distillation of the very best. Complimenting Kinkys timeless maxims are illustrations by the brilliant Ace Reid. Kinkys Little Red Book is a compilation of his hilarious, insightful, and raunchy one-liners. Organized into sections including: Cowboy Logic; Things You Would Never Hear a Real Texan Say; Blessings, Curses, & Other Observations on the Condition of Our Condition; All Politics is Yokel; Kinky on Kinky; The Continuing Adventures of God & Man; Treasures & Pleasures; Advice to People Who Are Happier Than I am; The Great State of Texas; Love, Marriage & Other Hopeless Causes; Writing for Fun & Prophet; and Animal Crackers. Some of Kinkys bon mots include: Theres a fine line between fiction and non-fiction and I believe I snorted it in 1976. When the horse dies--get off. Always respect your superiors, if you have any. Where theres a will, theres a lawyer. A happy childhood is the worst possible preparation for life. Trust me. Im a Jew. Ill hire good people. Happiness is a moving target. As the old cowboy philosophy of life sums it up Hang on tight, spur hard, and leter buck.
