

Letters from Maybe

Looking for delightful and heartwarming stories that present familiar spiritual truths in new and insightful ways? Then you'll definitely enjoy this collection of brief parables in the form of humorous letters sent to Pastor Mike from a fictional parishioner. The letters chronicle a five-year timeframe in the life of the small town of Maybe, Michigan, the bucolic home of such colorful establishments as the Busy Bee Caf?, Thelmas Cut-n-Curl, and Americas first Refrigerator Magnet Museum. Following a folksy formula reminiscent of Garrison Keillors News from Lake Wobegon, the homespun letters report on the people and rhythms of everyday life in a typical small town. You'll share in events like graduations, county fairs, and weddings, and see how they offer a subtle yet compelling platform for examining universal themes of community, faith, and relationship. Each letter is linked to a scripture passage, and engages listeners with an easygoing, conversational tone. The uplifting and captivating material in Letters From Maybe can also be used in a variety of pastoral settings. The letters can be read from the pulpit as a pleasant change of pace, and they make excellent meditations or meeting starters for small groups and retreats. Convenient topic and scripture indexes are included so that you can easily locate a letter relating to a specific subject. Topics covered include: Discipleship? Miracles? Acceptance? Gossip? Generosity? Persistence? Forgiveness? Companionship? Loyalty? Deceit
