

Johnny Cakes: A Novel (The Rachael OBrien Chronicles) (Volume 5)

In book five of THE RACHAEL OBRIEN CHRONICLES, Rachael is psyched to ditch dorm life, but cant shake the ominous feeling about her landlord, who has a history of meddling in her love life. When psychic groupies crash a house party, Rachael is mortified to find her estranged mother at the helm, telling of danger. She brushes Moms forewarnings aside--until one by one, they come true. Academics would be a breeze if the most feared professor on campus hadnt trapped Rachael into interning. The professors new extra-curricular import venture uses Rachael as free labor. When deliveries go missing, so does a roommate and an international art smuggling scheme, with life-or-death stakes is uncovered in Paisley Rays JOHNNY CAKES.
