

Girl with the Flaxen Hair: Score & Parts (Eighth Note Publications)

This piece has been arranged for a wide variety of instrumental groups including several versions for brass quintet. This new arrangement scored by Kenneth Bray for a large brass choir is better suited than versions for a smaller brass ensemble. Scored for 4 trumpets (including one piccolo), 4 horns, 3 trombones, euphonium, tuba, and percussion, this piece has been an audience favourite ever since the release of the original work for solo piano. A very colourful and elegant transcription, this piece is an excellent addition to the repertoire of brass ensembles.
