

Winning Lifes Battles through Prayer

An introduction to a discipleship process that can increase the fruitfulness of your life through biblical, kingdom-focused prayer. This brief book describes how believers can appropriate Christ's supreme victory in the battles of their lives and be used of God to extend His kingdom of grace, prepare for His kingdom of glory, and destroy the kingdom of Satan and sin. The book consists of two parts: 1. Preparing for War- This chapter begins with helping the reader to see if he/she is part of the problem or solution. Next it considers the relation between prayer and God's decrees and America's last hope. It raises two very significant questions: (1) Why do believers and churches lose vitality? and (2) Why are you still here? 2. Bearing Fruit through Prayer- Believers can increase their ability to bear fruit through prayer if they understand and act on four truths. These truths are: (1) Crises call for prayer; (2) Creation compels all people to pray; (3) Christ commands His disciples to pray with kingdom focus; and (4) God uses Kingdom Intercessors Training (KIT) to help Christ's followers pray with kingdom focus. Also in this book, KIT is described and compared to Jesus' method of training the twelve disciples, KIT qualifications are listed, and the 1203 Vision (120 kingdom intercessors in 120 local churches in 120 cities, regions and countries) is described. It closes with the challenge of counting the cost of being a kingdom intercessor.
