(No. 2.) / the Court of Dire clots, on the 16th of J/iril, 1795. THE Governor and Deputy Governor were directed by the court to wait upon the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and to mention to him Ihe uneasiness they have felt on being left, during so long a period, in an advance of one and an half, to upwards of two millions of money, for the bills accepted by the Treasury. That this mode of paying the Treasury bills in advance was never meant to be carried to anv great extent, at the most.to 500,0001, and that only as a temporary accommodation. The Chancellor of the Exchequer did promise to the Governor and Deputy Governor, in December last, and particularly in a conversation on the 17th of January, that the amount of these bills paid al the Bank, then exceeding the sum of 500,0001, sliould certainly be paid off after the receipt of the first payment on the new loan; hich promise hath not yet taken place. The court have therefore come to a resolution, that they cannot in future allow of any disburse on this account exceeding the sum of 500,0001; and they do request that the Chancellor of the Exchequer will be pleased to order th...
