

Rapsodie pour Orchestre et Saxophone, CD 104/L.98 -Study score

Composed for the American amateur saxophonist Elise Hall in 1903, Debussy left the orchestration incomplete at his death. The task of finishing the orchestral score fell to Jean Roger-Ducasse, who prepared the orchestral version in time for its premiere on May 14, 1919 in Paris, conducted by Debussy's student Andre Caplet. The present study score is a digitally-enhanced reprint of the score issued by Durand et Cie. in 1919.
