

Norfolk Rhapsody No.1: Study score

Vaughan Williams composed three Norfolk Rhapsodies in 1906. Nos. 2 and 3 - now sadly lost - were actually performed at a concert in London's Queen's Hall on 17 April 1912 under Balfour Gardiner just days after the Titanic disaster. The First Rhapsody was given its premiere on 23 August 1906 at the same locale under Henry Woods baton. The composer made a number of revisions to the work before a second performance took place (21 May 1914) in Bournemouth. This newly engraved edition by Richard Sargeant is based upon the revised 1914 score.
