

On the Predestination of the Saints

Therefore I ought first to show that the faith by which we are Christians is the gift of God. Predestination of the Saints is part of Augustines collection of anti-Pelagian writings. This volume was written at the request of Prosper of Aquitaine, a disciple of Augustine. Prosper had been under pressure from Pelagian groups in his city, and required guidance from Augustine in order to soundly refute their doctrine. In this volume, Augustine provides his most comprehensive exposition of this doctrine. This electronic edition features an active table of contents and endnotes. On the Predestination of the Saints is part of The Fig Classic Series on Early Church Theology. To view more books in our catalog, visit us at fig-books.com.
