

Charlemagne: Founder of the Holy Roman Empire (Heroes and Warriors)

Charlemagne--Carolus Magnus, Charles the Great, King of the Franks and Emperor of the West--was born in 742 AD, and became the undisputed leader of one of the greatest power blocks in history--The Holy Roman Empire. This book on the Heroes and Warriors, tells the story of his life, his campaigns against the new barbarians--the Slavs, Avars, and Saxons--and of his heroism and achievements which have been celebrated in history and literature as amongst the most colorful and fascinating in early Europe.
