

Phaidon (German Edition)

Platons Dialog Phaidon entstand vermutlich zwischen 380 und 390 v. Chr. und gehört zu den bis heute wirkmächtigsten Texten der antiken Philosophie. Benannt ist der Dialog nach dem griechischen Philosophen Phaidon von Elis, der in der Rahmenhandlung von der Verurteilung und Hinrichtung seines Lehrers Sokrates wegen Religionsfrevels und Verführung der Jugend berichtet. Dialogisch wird dabei ein weites Spektrum von Themen behandelt, so die vorbildlich gelassene Haltung des Sokrates angesichts eines krassen Fehlurteils, die Einheit von Leben und Handeln sowie die Frage nach einer möglichen Existenz nach dem Tod. Nicht zuletzt beeindruckt Phaidon durch Platons literarisch ausgestaltete, präzise Schilderung von Sokrates Todeskampf nach Einnahme des Pflanzengifts Coniin.
