

Pyramids (Topic books)

Each book in this series focuses on one topic area, with cross-curricular application. The titles are varied and offer a mix of information through science, art and music activities and linked reading material. Reading exercises are presented as poems, stories, newspaper-style articles and myths and legends. Each title is designed in a child friendly and accessible way, using both artwork and colour photographs. Pyramids - Everything you needed to know about pyramids is discussed in this title, from what they are and why they came about, to pyramids today - why they are in danger and the best way to protect them. Also, the magic and mystery that surrounds them.
