

Angels of Eden: Book #2 of the Angelic Testament

The war in Heaven is over and everything is back to normal. Except for a third of the angels, now banished from Heaven... And Lysander has no clue what to do. With the creation of Earth, the arrival of Adam and Eve, and the construction of the Garden of Eden completed, he now has more responsibilities than ever before. And his focus is divided as he desperately wants to save the fallen angels. But when human lives are lost in his quest, he realizes that he has to make the ultimate decision - to neglect his heavenly duties, or give up on the fallen altogether. He soon formulates a plan to end the bloodshed once and for all, but how can it work without jeopardizing the future of Heaven and generations of humanity to come?
