

Winged Warfare (WWI Centenary Series)

Here for the first time is presented the thrilling personal narrative of a living champion of the air—the self-told story of Major William A. Bishop, of Canada and the British Royal Flying Corps. This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis. The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the worlds bloodiest wars, offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history. Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context.
