Not illustrated. 1760 Excerpt: ...river, the most formidable part of this armament is deprived of the power of acting, yet we have almost the whole force of Canada to oppose. In this situation, there is such a choice of dissiculties, that I own myself at a loss how to determine. The affairs of Great Britain, I know, require the most vigorous measures; but then the courage of a handsul of biave men, should be exerted only, where there is some hope of a favourable event. However, you may be assured, sir, that the small part of the campaign which remains, shall be employed (as far as I am able) for the honour of his majesty, and the interest of the nation, in which I am sure of being well seconded by the admiral, and by the generals. Happy if our efforts here can contribute-to the success of his majestys arms in any other parts of America. I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, sir, your most obedient, and most humble servant, J. WOL?E. Articles of capitulation agreed on, between General Towunsbend and M. dt Ramzay, Commander of Quebec. Article I. MDE RAMZAY demands s the honours of war for his garrison, and that it shall be conducted back to the army in sasety by the shortest road, with their arms, baggage, six pieces of brass cannon, two mortars, or howitzers, and twelve rounds. The garrison of the town, composed of land forces, marines, and sailors, mall march out with their arms and baggage, drums beating, lighted matches, with two pieces of cannon, and twelve rounds, and shall be embarked as conveniently as possible, in order to be landed at the sirst port in France. II. That the inhabitants shall be maintained in the possession of their houses, goods, effects, and privileges. Granted, provided they lay down their arms. III. That the said inhabitants shall not be molested on...
