

The Battle for Pusan: A Memoir

A great read [that] has frozen the events in print that molded great men who stood alone on the mainland of Asia against the first Asian Communist Army to engage the West. From the Foreword by Brig. Gen. Robert L. Scott, Jr., USAF (Ret.), author of God Is My Co-Pilot The rapid-fire success of the North Korean Armys (NKA) invasion of South Korea, launched on June 25, 1950, and supported by Russias vaunted T-34 tanks, stunned the world. By August 1, the entire South had fallen, save for the port city of Pusan. As the enemy prepared to deliver the coup de grace, only one obstacle remained: Lt. Addison Terrys unit, the famous Wolfhounds of the 27th Regimental Combat Team. Used as a fire brigade to shore up imperiled American defenses, these intrepid soldiers were in the thick of it, stopping the NKAs threat of a breakthrough at every turn. Against all odds, the Wolfhounds stood firm, racking up two Presidential Unit Citations within weeks. Terrys account, written while recovering from injuries he suffered during the battle, captures the war in all its grit, sacrifice, and courage. A fascinating first-person account of the early days of the Korean War. themilitarybookreview.com
