

The Creator: Living Well in God's World (Volume 4, Souls Longing Series)

I believe in the Creator, for by His Word all things were made, all things hold together and all things have meaning and purpose. Those words of the creed are truer than we may realize. Human existence makes no sense without the Creator God, and all of our perceptions and philosophies hinge on our understanding of and relationship to the Creator. Now, with the guidance of one of the worlds foremost Christian thinkers and writers, you can more fully appreciate your role in the world and your responsibilities to your Creator. The Creator is the fourth in a series of books by Dr. James Houston on developing greater intimacy with God. Through clear and compelling examinations of Scriptures, Dr. Houston reveals that there can only be meaning in life if there is a Creator of life, and the future of the earth depends on how we live and serve our Creator. We were created for the purpose of relating intimately to our Creator. And knowing how is crucial to our spiritual growth.
