The Devil Finds Work (Vintage International)

Baldwins personal reflections on movies gathered here in a book-length essay are also a probing appraisal of American racial politics. Offering an incisive look at racism in American movies and a vision of Americas self-delusions and deceptions, challenges Baldwin the underlying assumptions in such films as In the Heat of the Night, Guess Whos Coming to Dinner, and The Exorcist. Here are our loves and hates, biases and cruelties, fears and ignorance reflected by the films that have entertained us and shaped consciousness. And here too is the stunning prose of a writer whose passion never diminished his struggle for equality, justice, and social change.
