

The Letters of Gertrude Stein and Carl Van Vechten, 1913-1946

This monumental collection of correspondence between Gertrude Stein and critic, novelist, and photographer Carl Van Vechten provides crucial insight into Steins life, art, and artistic milieu as well as Van Vechtens support of major cultural projects, such as the Harlem Renaissance. From their first meeting in 1913, Stein and Van Vechten formed a unique and powerful relationship, and Van Vechten worked vigorously to publish and promote Steins work. Existing biographies of Stein?including her own autobiographical writings?omit a great deal about her experiences and thought. They lack the ordinary detail of what Stein called daily everyday living: the immediate concerns, objects, people, and places that were the grist for her writing. These letters not only vividly represent those details but also showcase Stein and Van Vechtens private selves as writers. Edward Burnss extensive annotations include detailed cross-referencing of source materials.
