

Plight of Man and the Power of God

We must rouse ourselves and realize afresh that though our Gospel is timeless and changeless, it nevertheless is always contemporary. We must meet the present situation and we must speak a word to the world that none else can speak. Martyn Lloyd-Jones (1899-1981) was born in Wales. He was a dairymans assistant, a political enthusiast, debater, and chief clinical assistant to Sir Thomas Harder, the King of Englands Physician. But at the age of 27 he gave up a most promising medical career to become a preacher. He had a far-reaching influence ministry at Westminster Chapel in London, England from 1938-68. His published works have had an unprecedented circulation, selling in millions of copies. What we have in these five expositions is the Gospel explained with great clarity and hope. Even today I used these timeless chapters with a non-Christian friend who is seeking to understand Christianity. I commend these messages to you. (from the foreword) Mark Dever ~ Senior Pastor of Capitol Hill Baptist Church, Washington, DC
