

The Meandering Thoughts of a Misfit Mind: A collection of poetry and unfinished stories

A collection of poetry and uncompleted stories that I have written over the past years. It is an incomplete collection as many of my stories and poems have been lost over the years. There is also a personal account of my experience of homophobia in the Irish school system. These poems encompass my fears and feelings but also show a hope and belief of change. The stories show my need to escape reality.
