

Church Covenant and Doctrinal Statement: Including Daily Bread Bible Reading Schedule and a Puritan Catechism

Do You Know What Your Church Believes? Historically, early Baptists in England used covenants as they organized as a congregation with common beliefs. This began approximately in the seventeenth century. These documents were signed by the founding members of a church, expressing their commitment to God, as well as to each other. Many early Baptists in America did the same. Sovereign Grace Baptist Church in Anniston, Alabama has continued in this practice. Gathering as an independent congregation of believers since 1976, Sovereign Grace Baptist Church established a Church Covenant from its very beginning. This book contains SGBC's Church Covenant, her doctrinal statement, as well as the Daily Bread Bible reading schedule from Robert Murray McCheyne and A Puritan Catechism from Charles Haddon Spurgeon. This resource has been available for members of SGBC, for new converts to Christ, as well as for those interested in becoming members. It is now made available to anyone who would enjoy a convenient tool for growth in grace and strength in faith, exalting Christ unto God's glory alone.
