

The New Frontier

Already critically acclaimed for his outstanding visionary work on the Catwoman series (published by Titan), Darwyn Cooke takes a red-hot comics crucible and blends fact and fantasy into a new chronology of the past! In this beautiful re-imagining of history, a classic superhero universe is woven into the recent past. McCarthyism, the Korean War, Kennedy, the Space Race - they all bleed into the mythology of Batman, Superman and the JLA, to name but a few of the giants of history and cultural icons that star in this gorgeously painted graphic novel! Reading like the bastard child of James Ellroy's American Tabloid and the massively successful Superman: Red Son, this truly is a new and revolutionary frontier!
