

The Winds Will

Who is the final authority? Is it God or is it mankind? Has the Creator handed over His sovereignty to His creatures? Is God waiting in heaven to see how things pan out on earth? Is He really free to love the way He wants to or does He march to the beat of our drum? In this look at the Sovereignty of God, author Gary L. May shines scriptural light on some of the many misconceptions of today's Church, questioning traditions and answering some of the critics of Reformed Theology in a way that is easy to read and clear to follow. Much of what has been written in the past on these issues seems too deep for the average Christian, but Gary L. May speaks from the heart and from the Bible to today's believer. Looking at such issues as the depravity of man, the sovereignty of God, what happens in the new birth and what the Gospel really is Gary L. May brings an old debate into the 21st Century using the plumb-line of Biblical truth and putting God back on the throne where He belongs. Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be amazed that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going; so is everyone who is born of the Spirit. (John 3:5-8)
