

To Teach as Jesus Taught: 11 Attributes of a Master Teacher

If we knew Jesus as a mortal man, would we have thought of him as the Savior of mankind or as a crank and charlatan? Throughout history, Jesus primarily through the written accounts of his life and his teachings has been able to touch the lives of billions of individuals, whether rich or poor, famous or infamous, strong or weak. But who was this man who claimed to be the Savior of the world? To Teach as Jesus Taught: 11 Attributes of a Master Teacher looks at Jesus in a new perspective from the eyes of those who knew him in mortality and how they sought to describe him. Some thought of him as a new Moses, some focused on his many miracles, and everyone seemed to have been captivated by his death. By focusing on 11 attributes of Jesus teaching style and incorporating the words of scripture alongside other contemporary accounts, Thomas Wayment will guide you to a better, more personal understanding of the Master Teacher.
