

What Every Christian Should Believe (Life Essentials Books)

It's imperative that young believers move beyond the initial experience of God. Getting grounded in the fundamentals of the faith is the key to a deep, abiding relationship with Christ. What Every Christian Should Believe is a classic primer on the basics of the Christian faith. William Evans deftly addresses only the necessities of the faith, preventing readers from being distracted by peripheral issues. The concise chapters will enable readers of all levels of spiritual maturity to engage the material and apply it to their walk with the Lord.
