

Yo! What Happened To Peace?

This book catalogs the 220+ handcrafted anti-war and pro-peace prints by 120+ artists that have come to define the touring Yo! What Happened to Peace? poster exhibition. The Yo! show is composed entirely of prints made with a commitment to old-school printing techniques such as screen print, letterpress, stencil, linocut and others. Featuring 144 pages of color images with an introduction by punk art legend Winston Smith. Printed in Italy with a special die-cut stencil cover. Edited by artist and curator John Carr, the book includes work by Ames Bros., Jesus Barraza, Chaz Bojorquez, Robbie Conal, 3D, Eric Drooker, Emek, Shepard Fairey/OBEY, Karen Fiorito, Firehouse, Brandy Flower, Forkscrew Graphics, Futura, Gustavo Alberto Garcia Vaca, JK5, Kayrock & Wolfy, Josh MacPhee, Mear One, Favianna Rodriguez, Seripop, Yuri Shimojo, Winston Smith, Seth Tobocman, Mark Vallen, Voodoo Catbox and MANY others. The Yo! show had its beginnings in 2002 during the march to war in Iraq. Starting originally with 14 posters, it has since grown into an international exhibition, featuring work from a growing roster of over 120 artists. Past shows have included Tokyo, San Francisco, New York, London, Stockholm, Milan, Reykjavik, Los Angeles, Washington D.C., Boston and Chicago. The book is a complete companion catalog to the stunning exhibitions!
